NAIA's Annual Joe Brown Silent Auction Event

It's that time again! The 19th Annual NAIA Conference & Trade Show is scheduled to take place at the Albatross Hotel in Gander, NL on Feb 14-16, 2012. During the conference, NAIA staff and volunteers will be organizing the annual Joe Brown Silent Auction where funds raised will be distributed to a student who currently is or will be enrolled into an aquaculture program.

Joe Brown, Research Scientist at the Ocean Sciences Centre from 1984 to 2005, established a unique reputation both for his scholarly work in the areas of behavioural ecology of fishes and cold-water aquaculture and for his radiant, passionate sense of humour, humanity and empathy, particularly concerning students.

Auction proceeds from items such as first aid kits, telephones, life jackets, gift certificates, T shirts, hats, jackets, etc. are certainly appreciated and can go a long way when conference goers start a bidding war!

If you would like to donate an item please confirm by contacting one of the numbers below and feel free to forward any items to either NAIA office or drop off at the registration table at the Conference.

NAIA would like to thank all past supporters and we hope we can count on your support again this year. If you have any questions, please contact one of the auction committee members: Roberta Collier at 709-538-3454 or Gail Hoskins at 709-538-3796.

We look forward to seeing you in Gander!
